A MESSAGE FROM THE EXALTED RULER
KEN CALLEGARI

Dear Fellow Elks,

In remembrance of our members who have passed away this last year, we will be holding a memorial service on Sunday, December 5th at 3pm in the Lodge Room.

On a happier note: we have several fun events coming up.

We have our annual kid's holiday party and toy drive in the Lodge room on Wednesday, December 8th starting at 5:30pm.

We will have our Free lunch for members on Saturday, December 11. Members must bring their membership cards. Guests are welcome. Guest fee is $20 per person.

The Ladies group will be having a Christmas brunch and raffle on Sunday, December 12th.

Finally, we will be having a New Year's Eve party on Friday, December 31st starting at 6:30pm. Tickets are limited so please get your ticket early.

Final note for the year 2021, I am proud of all the officers and staff for their efforts on keeping our Lodge going and trying to return a sense of normalcy under the current COVID conditions.

Have a great Holiday Season and I will talk to you again in 2022

GOLF

We had our last tournament on Wednesday, October 6th at Metropolitan in Oakland. It was a little cold, but the course was in good shape. Rick Swartz was 2' 10" on the 15th hole. He is now the "closest to the pin" leader for the year now with one tournament to go. Jimmy Roberts shot a gross 72, net 66 to win the first flight. Alfie Holmes still leads for golfer of the year. Both winners get a $50 prize. Metropolitan results are below.

Our last tournament of the year on Monday, November 1st at Poplar Creek was cancelled due to rain. We had our end of the year golfer's dinner on Wednesday, November 3rd at the Elks.

NCGA dues are now due. The cost is $49 for returning golfers and associate golfers. The cost is $59 for new or lapse golfers. Please make a check out to the San Mateo Elks and leave at the office. Money is due by January 10th 2022.

Troop 44 / 4044

By Lauren Davis

Written by Past Senior Patrol Leader Ian Wright

I was the Senior Patrol Leader for Troop 44 from May to November. My goal was always to make sure the Troop stayed steady while we transitioned from online meetings because of a pandemic to normal meetings where we would all be in a room together. When I was elected to be the SPL, I had no idea that the first meeting I would be in that position would be the first meeting the troop would have in person since the pandemic.

That meeting was in a parking lot, required us to take the temperature of all the meeting's attendees, and of course, everyone was wearing a mask. Throughout my time as SPL, I wasn't always able to manage the stress that came with it. I always tried to continue being a good leader, but sometimes I gave into that stress and was at times ineffective as a leader and decision maker.

I was regrettably only able to attend one of the monthly trips the troop had during my term. I am extremely grateful for my fellow scouts who were acting SPLs on the trips I couldn't be on. I am also grateful for my friends who gave me advice when I was unsure what to do.

It has been extremely hard to reflect on the quality of my term, because while I was going, I never cared to look back at how I was doing, because I couldn't turn away from how well I would end up doing in the future. Now that I don't have to worry about the future in that way, I can safely say that I did an adequate job. I have seen both better and worse leaders in the troop. As the Troop returned to mostly doing things like normal, I feel I did keep us transitioning to that spot and continue scouting as best as any of us could. However, I started to think too much about what we were able to do, to make sure something happened, instead of what we should do as a troop; what was enjoyable and what was necessary. This is the mistake that I wish I could fix. I also know that I didn't do enough to keep the troop's scout spirit up, perhaps because I've lost a lot of hope about a great deal of things, but I have definitely seen the importance enthusiasm has in a large group, it truly can be infectious once enough people have it. But somewhere deep down I know that the spirit that I've seen lacking is rising. I know that because I have seen the spark of enthusiasm in many of the newer scouts, and I can tell that they care. There's no way to know how the troop will progress throughout the years, but I do know that it will be in good hands for the next few years, if the troop keeps its spirit.

TENNIS

October 10, 2021

Charity Tennis Tournament raises over $2,800 to help fight cancer

It was a dazzling Sunday morning on October 10th when sixteen San Mateo Elks Lodge #1112 members met on the tennis courts after a hiatus last year due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The athletes gathered in a spirit of charity, brotherly love and competition at the 14th Annual Elks Lodge Doubles Tennis Tournament.

For the first three hours, opposing pairs of players faced off for 5 sets of round-robin play to determine who would earn enough individual points to advance to the semi-finals. The subsequent semi-final winners advanced to the final matchup. After 6 grueling sets of high-stress tennis, the championship matchup consisted of Dave Tyler and Cindy Chang vs Tom Kane and Lou Villar. The final round produced some of the most exciting tennis we have seen in the tournament. In the end, Tom Kane and Lou Villar prevailed, but Dave Tyler finished with the most points. The point totals yielded the final Trophy winners: 4th Place — Cindy Chang, 3rd Place - Lou Villar, 2nd Place — Tom Kane, and the 2021 Champion — Dave Tyler. Tournament Coordinator Ed Nevius was heard exclaiming, "This was a great tournament! There was some super tennis played today."

Camaraderie, sportsmanship and fun are the hallmarks of the tournament each year and this tournament was no exception. Participants enjoyed a bountiful luncheon afterward and each received a tournament t-shirt. In addition, the players and our generous tournament sponsors helped to raise a grand total of $2,845.00 which will be donated directly to the American Cancer Society. Thanks to all that participated and donated. See you all next October!

-Tyler Souther

An Elk Christmas Fable

This is a Christmas story that no one knows about
When an excited Elf ran to Santa and he did shout
There is something wrong with the Reindeer I think
Santa took this in stride, and he didn't even blink
Don't panic, little Elf, let us go and have a look
Santa saw that the Reindeer quivered and shook
With Christmas so near, this is no time to be sick
This is definitely the wrong time of year to pick
Only two days before Christmas, this looked so bleak
With the fever, Santa knew they would be too weak
Santa went to his bookshelf, realizing how sad he felt
He remembered reading a passage of a magic Elk
The Elk had great endurance and was very powerful
He had pulled a train for six miles, outlasting a Bull
One of the astonishing things about him, he could fly
Santa had to find him, before another day went by Elk are much larger than his Reindeer, thrice as strong
With this Elks' power, he could last the whole night long
Santa called, and of course the Elk did readily agree
And that is how this particular Christmas came to be
If into this story you further want to delve
You can contact this Magic Elk at lodge #1112
