Summer is here at the lodge!

Bocce leagues are in full swing, tennis courts resurfaced, and the pool is open for member's families and guests. Some upcoming events in July are the July 4th BBQ with a live band, our first chili cook off, and bingo.

Our lodge will be represented at the Grand Lodge conference in Minneapolis this month. These conferences remind us of the great work the Elks do throughout the country.

Our lodge offers a great deal of amenities and provide services, but our lodge also allows us to play a prominent role in our community life.

Please remember to thank all of our volunteers, committee members, officers, and employees for keeping our lodge going and all of the work we do for the community.

We promise no material benefits of fame, but instead we vow to help each other become better, happier people, and to serve rather than be served.

You will also notice our new logo on the front of the building— thanks Alfie!

The motto is: Elks Care Elks Share.

MOMENTUM BEGETS MOMENTUM

In June, we were pleased to present the strides made this past year and how our lodge is serving Veterans to regional ELKS leadership. We welcomed new community volunteers, area lodges, and local businesses committed to further these efforts.

We had 28 golfers for our San Jose tournament. The weather was nice, and the course was in good shape. Felix Bilbao was 7 feet from the pin on hole 7, and now is closest for the year. Mark Milano shot a net 66 to win the first flight. Steve Seitz won the 2nd flight. They are now tied with 13 points each for "golfer of the year". The full results are below.

We played San Ramon on Wednesday, June 21st. The results will be in next month's bulletin.

Our July tournament is at Sunnyvale on Wednesday the 14th. The cost is $70, and the money is due by July 4th. A signup sheet is posted on the golf bulletin board.

Any questions you have about joining the golf club, please email me at richt2u@gmail.com.

I am sure all of us wish we could still be playing golf at 90. On the dreaded 9th island hole, we did have 2 pars by Rich Jeffries and Rick Swartz. The result of the tournament is below.
