DEVOTED TO THE PRINCIPLES OF ELKDOM, Published by San Mateo Elks Lodge No.1112 June 2025

Dear Members of San Mateo,

As we step into another month together, I want to begin by expressing my deep gratitude for the continued commitment, kindness, and strength of spirit that each of you brings to our Lodge. The pride I feel serving as your Exalted Ruler grows with every event, every act of service, and every new face that walks through our doors.

Looking ahead, we have several key opportunities to continue making a difference here at the Lodge. We just started our Historical and Beautification Committees, so please ask about them if you are interested. I encourage every member, whether new or seasoned, to find a way to get involved. Your participation not only strengthens our Lodge—it strengthens our community.

The Historical Committee has been created to honor, preserve, document, and celebrate the legacy of San Mateo Lodge #1112 over the years. Our work will be centered on maintaining the records, memorabilia, and stories that make our Lodge unique and ensure that future generations of Elks understand and appreciate our proud heritage.

The Beautification Committee is dedicated to enhancing the appearance and atmosphere of our Lodge, both inside and out. This committee works to ensure that our facilities reflect the pride and dignity of Elkdom, and creating a welcoming environment for members, guests, and the community. We will be having a lodge clean up day coming soon so look for the details in the next bulletin.

I'm pleased to share that several of us recently attended the State Convention and I can confidently say it was both inspiring and energizing. It was a wonderful opportunity to connect with fellow Elks from across California to exchange ideas, celebrate achievements, and learn new ways to strengthen our Lodge. We returned home with fresh insights, new goals, and a renewed commitment to the values that guide us: Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity.

If you've never attended a convention, I highly encourage you to consider it next year. It's a chance to see the full scope of what Elkdom means in our state and to be reminded that we are part of something much larger than our own Lodge. The midterm will be held in Santa Clara so if you want to learn more about Elkdom it is a great opportunity!

I'd also like to take a moment to welcome our newest members. We are honored that you've chosen to become part of our Elks family, and I encourage you to reach out, ask questions, and engage. You are the future of this Lodge, and we are excited for the journey ahead with you.

As members of the Elks, we hold ourselves to the highest standards of Brotherly Love, Charity, Justice, and Fidelity—not just in service, but in how we treat one another. If concerns or disagreements arise, we encourage open, respectful dialogue. Speak with one another, not about one another.

Let us also be mindful of how we present ourselves within the Lodge. Our words, actions, and attitudes reflect not only on ourselves, but on our Lodge as a whole. Kindness, patience, and mutual respect go a long way in keeping our Lodge a welcoming and positive space for all.

We are stronger when we face challenges together, with understanding and unity.

Let us also not forget the principles that bind us—Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity. These values remain our guiding light. As Exalted Ruler, I am committed to upholding them in every decision and action we take.

Thank you again for your trust and your dedication. Let's continue moving forward together, in the spirit of Elkdom.

Fraternally yours, Carson Condon Exalted Ruler San Mateo Lodge #1112

San Mateo Ritual Team 2025

The San Mateo ritual team did well at our District competition on Saturday, 4/26 at our Fremont Lodge. Competing against 6 other teams to represent our District at State and coming in 3rd overall is not too shabby!

Boasting rights can go to Gene Condon, Leading Knight who came in 2nd place behind our ardent Ritual Champs, Alameda, 1015

In personal competitions, we placed very respectfully:

Inner Guard	Katherine Hoffman	3 rd place
Chaplain	Connor Larsen	3 rd place
Lecturing Knight	Martin Rojo	3 rd place
Loyal Knight	Chris Underwood	3 rd place
Leading knight	Gene Condon	2 nd place

Other competing Officers were: Carson Condon, Exalted Ruler; Brent Breckenridge, Esquire; Noelle Furrer, Candidate; Tom Dasher, Coach

All did well, gave so much for San Mateo, and deserve a Congratulations. This event takes a lot of practice, time and devotion. Most Officers do not like participating in the contest but they also understand why we do it and so they take it on for the lodge and our Order.

Ritual Contest is done because when a new member is Initiated into our Order, the ritual they are part of is meant to leave a lasting impression in their hearts and mind. The Order holds this practice dear. We want every Officer Corps to be their best.

TROOP 44/404

By Jonas Bell

If you had told 11 year old me that I would one day be the SPL and that I would be talking in front of this many people, I'm pretty sure I would have been in disbelief. But here I am. And it's crazy because 11 year old me, and even 16 year old me just a year ago, did not want to be SPL. To me, it's always been terrifying having to lead so many people; you could say I had a bit of a choice paralysis. That is, I'm so scared of making the wrong choice in any given situation that I let someone else decide for me.

Going into my term as SPL, I was not confident in what I saw as my lack of skills in the leadership department; always content to sit in the background, but not taking charge. As a result, my skills as a leader were not really developed at all, which resulted in a lot of stress during my term. I found myself struggling to make decisions in the moment if something didn't go to plan or if any problem arose. Being SPL really brought a new meaning to the phrase "with great power comes great responsibility." I think that, for me, the power I now had taught me alot about what it is like to be a leader. There were many things that I wanted to do during my term that I ultimately didn't do because I was scared. I've learned during my term that I really don't do well under pressure. But if there's one thing I know about pressure, it is that it is a force of change. Pressure is why rocks that go deep under the surface of this planet come out unrecognizable, pressure is why we evolved to live on this planet, and pressure is why being SPL was a transformative experience for me.

In being SPL, I've had to adapt to situations that I otherwise would have had no stake in, having to change meetings last minute and lead clean-ups when I have no idea where anything goes. I've learned that I must be more confident and assertive, lest I let the will of others get the best of me. Though, to be honest, I think the most important thing I learned is, "Wow, you really don't want to be SPL in your junior year of high school while taking 5 APs, doing a sport, working on my college plans, and while still trying to get my Eagle."

To the Elks, I want to say thank you for your hospitality and allowing us to use your facilities all these years because without you, this troop wouldn't be possible.
