My incredible team of Officers have been practicing every Tuesday night under the coaching of Tom Dasher in preparation for the upcoming Bay District Ritual Contest, which will be held at the Alameda lodge May 4th followed by a dinner at the lodge. That evening, the Officers who came in 1st to 3rd place will be announced. The winning lodge will then go on to the State Convention in May and compete against other lodges who have come in first. Whoever wins that competition will then advance to the National Convention, which will be held in Austin, Texas this year. At this convention, we will meet and interact with Elks from all over the country. There will be meetings and workshops covering all aspects of Elkdom.

I was asked at the Installation of Officers how did the Elks Lodges come to be. I explained that in 1867 a small theatrical group organized a private drinking club in New York City. The club was formed to circumvent a new law in New York City that closed saloons on Sundays. This club was called the "Jolly Corks". The same came from a game that one of the original organizers used to play while in England. While the initial intentions of this group were to promote comradery among entertainers and actors, they quickly saw a benefit in bringing good to those less fortunate after the death of one of their members. Through the efforts of this group the Jolly Corks was renamed Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America (BPOE) in 1868. The Elk was chosen to represent this organization because it is distinctively an American animal. It lives in herds and is gentle, yet strong and courageous in defense of its own. The belief and cardinal principles of the Elks are Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity. The Order of the Elks allowed women to become members in 1996.

In May we will see the opening of the pool and cantina bar for families and friends (after 11 a.m.). Enjoy the pool and your time in the sun, but remember it is your responsibility to keep your children safe.

On Mother's Day, May 12th, make the mother in your life feel special. Whether it is your mother, sister, wife, or a friend, come on down to the lodge for a great brunch, no one ever goes away hungry. A mother's task is not easy. A Hebrew proverb states, "God could not be everywhere, therefore he created Mothers". May 26th we will celebrate Memorial Day with BBQ & music and the next day we will have our traditional Memorial Day Pancake Breakfast. On Memorial Day it is a time to remember those who have gone before us. We need to take the time and do so. It is always exciting heading into the summer season. As our membership increases and activity is way up, let us keep the membership high all year.

A MESSAGE FROM THE EXALTED RULER JEANNE ATNO

Invite a non-member to dinner on Wednesday evening, show them around the lodge, and invite them to some of our events. In order to keep our doors open we need new members. Everyone has good intentions, don't take our lodge for granted. The road to hell is paved with good intentions.

If you have any business or family functions that you need a facility for, I strongly suggest that you host them at our lodge. You can call Michele Sistler at 650-345-4889.

If you want to thank our Officers for taking on this job, you can do so by occasionally coming to a meeting. The meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday of each month. The first meeting is the business meeting, and the second meeting is the installation of new members.

Now that all our Officers are in place, I am working on committee members. With YOUR HELP, and this GREAT group of Officers, we can make this an outstanding year!

Fraternally Yours,

Jeanne Atno, E.R. 2024-2025

Troop 44 and 4044 News

By Alex Forbes

Troop 44/4044 had a few exciting meetings this month. The first meeting was to plan for our summer trip to Camp Chawanakee at Shaver Lake. This week-long trip allows scouts to work on merit badges such as archery, rifle shooting, swimming, and many more! We have several new scouts joining this trip for the first time.

Another meeting was spent discussing patrol boxes. Our troop keeps the cooking equipment for camping trips in patrol boxes. A lot of the things we have are old, so we decided to replace them with new equipment. Fortunately, we are raising funds by collecting cans so we can purchase new stoves, pans, pots, and utensils.

The most exciting troop meeting was when we did lashings and first aid stations. Scouts learned how to do square lashes and how to transport injured victims. Towards the end of the session, we held a competition to see who had the strongest lashing. Surprisingly, a brand new scout won first place. He proved everyone wrong by showing his lashing skills.

We also had a backpacking trip planned near Folsom Lake; however, due to a lightning forecast in the area, our trip had to be canceled. Several scouts were eager to attend this trip, and fortunately it was rescheduled for the next month. Although March was a fairly quiet month, we are looking forward to many more activities planned for April.
